

"I like Manners Class because it helps me learn how to treat others. When you practice good manners, it is a lot easier to make good friends."

Mitchell, age 11, Redlands      The R.S.V.P. Institute of Etiquette   Celebrating 20 Years

The RSVP Institute is offering a new manners course on Tuesdays after school, starting October 12th for Grades K - 8

Maura Graber is bringing one last special 20 year anniversary priced class with an updated program, to Carden Arbor View students for Fall of 2010. The fee is only 65.00 per student for the 6 session, one hour, Tuesday classes. Instructional handouts, foods, prizes & rewards for a job well done are always included in the fee.

Class minimum is 12 students.

With lessons covering respect for others, cultural & physical diversity, restaurant manners, dining etiquette (chopsticks too), handling uncomfortable & unfamiliar social situations with grace, the importance of posture, introductions, notes of thanks, manners for the internet, phone etiquette, & more!

These classes always offer a fun way of learning the important social graces & vital skills that foster social self-confidence in students. Students will discover how good it feels to be confident and poised in a variety of social situations and settings. All levels, including returning students, are welcome & will benefit from all of the new course activities and instruction we've developed since last spring!
